

CRMJ 121C : Criminal Procedure

Analyzes the constitutional issues in the U.S. that have direct bearing on the role and policies of criminal justice agencies. Application of these issues as they relate to investigation, arrest, pretrial, and appeal will be emphasized. The course is a combination of the case law and lecture method.

Credits 4

Lab/Practicum/Clinical Hours 0

Lecture Hours 4