

PEM 290C : Field Clinic Primer

An optional/assigned formative field experience where a student will ride 100 hours with an ALS service. This clinic can be utilized any semester a student needs additional ALS time. The same clinical manual and grading criteria will be used as in the other field clinicals. This course may not be taken more than twice. Students electing to enroll in this course must receive a passing grade before progressing in the program.

Credits 2

Lab/Practicum/Clinical Hours 6

Lecture Hours 0

Prerequisite Courses

PEM 194C

Prerequisites

All first-year courses

Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate an appropriate affect when interacting with faculty, staff, preceptors, patients, and patient-families.